To

N.Rama Rao, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Secretary to Government of Mysore,
Development Departments, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that in the interests of official discipline, it is considered desirable to give certain powers to the Assistant Registrars of Co-operative Societies. At present, there are four Assistant Registrars each in charge of 2 Districts. Of the 37 Inspectors, one is in charge of the Societies in Bangalore City, the remaining 36 being in charge of 36 Co-operative Circles. The Inspector in charge of the Bangalore City Circle is under the direct control of the Registrar, the other Inspectors being under the control of the respective Assistant Registrars of Divisions. The Inspectors are on a provincial scale, of whom 12 are in grade Rs.75-5-125 and 25 in grade Rs.40-5-75. Similarly, each Divisional Office consists of the marginally noted Clerical Staff. To enable the Assistant Registrars to exercise proper discipline over the subordinate Executive Staff and Clerical Staff, I propose that the Assistant Registrars may be given the following disciplinary powers and to request that Government may be pleased to sanction the same.

One Head Clerk on Rs.40-5-75.
Three Clerks on Rs.25-2½-50.

1. To grant leave upto a period of one month to the Inspectors and Clerks in their respective Divisions; (the fact being intimated to the Registrar), to place an Inspector in additional charge of another Co-operative Circle during such leave, and to appoint acting Clerks on Rs.25/- in grade Rs.25-2½-50 in Clerical vacancies for periods not exceeding a month.

2. To fine the officials working in their Divisions upto Rs.5/- in each case and to place them under suspension upto a period of one month.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

K H Ramayya

Registrar.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.D.6597/C.S.62-29-4 dated 12-12-1929 in the matter of empowering the Assistant Registrars of Co-operative Societies to fine officials working in their Divisions upto Rs.5/-, I have the honour to state that by officials is meant both the Clerical and the subordinate Executive Staff of the Department. This question was discussed in the recent meeting of all the Assistant Registrars held at Mysore in October 1929 and it was considered that such a disciplinary power was necessary for the Assistant Registrars in order to exercise proper discipline and efficient control over the Clerks and Inspectors working in their Divisions. In my letter No.2224/C.S. dated 25th October 1929 I recommended among other powers, that the Assistant Registrars should be given power to fine the officials working in their Divisions up to Rs.5/- and to place them under suspension up to a period of one month. On further consideration, I consider that it would be enough if this power of imposing fines is restricted to all clerks and Inspectors of the 2nd Grade working in their Divisions, the Registrar reserving the power of punishments in the case of all First Grade Inspectors on Rs.75-5-125.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
